TK-120101	Application for a judicial review/initiating administrative proceedings regarding fine(s) imposed by administrative decisions/orders with information notes

This information is effective as of 1 January 2018.

Information

In the case of judicial reviews initiated and repeated after 1 January 2018, of administrative procedures initiated till 31 December 2017, if the customer has exhausted all remedies and there are no further possibilities to appeal against the decision, he/she may request a judicial review or initiate administrative proceedings by submitting an application by filling out the ÁNYK form 120101.

With a further appeal on a point of law, the application must be submitted to the authority making the initial decision within 30 days upon the receipt of the decision requested for review.

The judicial review/administrative proceedings shall not have suspensive effect on the decision, and its suspension must be requested separately. The procedure is subject to fees and charges, the amount of which shall be HUF 30,000 in the case of decisions and HUF 10,000 in the case of orders. If it is the customer's representative who approaches the authority with the application, his/her entitlement must be adequately demonstrated (by attaching the authorisation or any other document verifying authorisation).

In accordance with the stipulations on electronic communication in Act III of 1952 on the Code of Civil Procedure, the party acting with a legal representative as well as economic organizations with their registered seat in Hungary must mandatorily submit the application to the authority making the administrative decision in the first instance in accordance with Section 330 subsection 2 by using the support services for submitting forms. Further to the above, other customers may also submit their applications electronically.
