Procedural order

Submitting an application

The notification shall be submitted by the person eligible to hunt to the police headquarters whose jurisdiction covers the location of the activity (group hunting); if in Budapest, this will be to the Metropolitan Police Headquarters.

Costs and expenses of the procedure

The procedure is free of charge.

No attachment to the application is required, unless the details of the company hunt are given in the attachment.

Processing an application

By submitting an application on the schedule of group hunting and on a change in the schedule, the client has fulfilled his statutory obligation. During the planned inspections of the police authority, it shall act in the light of the notification.
