

Another victim of the ship accident identified

The South Korean man found near Kulcs was a passenger of the capsized boat.

The identification of the body pulled from the Danube near Kulcs in the afternoon of 4 June 2019 was carried out, the South Korean man was a victim of the ship accident. The authorities continue to look for missing persons on the whole southern section of the Danube.